Official Exhibit Regulations

This exhibit supplements CeRMACS 2010 by providing meeting attendees with the various types of products, services, and information available to them. Exhibitors are expected to display their products and/or discuss their services with awareness of the technical and practical needs of CeRMACS 2010 attendees. The organizers, their societies, and the Dayton Convention Center reserve the right to refuse space to any applicant who, in the opinion of the organizers, their societies, and the Dayton Convention Center, is unlikely to contribute to the overall objectives of this meeting.

Each Exhibitor must name at least one person to be the official on-site representative and responsible party for its booth. The representative shall be authorized to enter into such contracts as may be necessary to the organizers, their societies, and the Dayton Convention Center, and to other contractors and subcontractors. At least one representative must be at the booth during all official hours of the Exhibit. Literature display tables may be unmanned tables.

The Exhibitor assumes responsibility and agrees to indemnify and defend the organizers, their societies, and the Dayton Convention Center and their respective employees and agents against any claims or expenses arising out of the use of the exhibit premises.

The Exhibitor understands that neither the organizers, their societies, and the Dayton Convention Center maintain insurance covering the Exhibitor's property and it is the sole responsibility of the Exhibitor to obtain such insurance.

(All applications must be signed in order to confirm booth reservations.) I understand, and agree to abide by, the official exhibition regulations as stated above.
